

Description-

Develop a portal where we can use the national database to track the development of individuals. According to their-

- Performance in their workplace

- Hobbies

- Extra curricular activities

The portal should suggest them their career goals. This can be what they are best in and according to that what is the best career they can choose for themselves. This can reduce in making mistakes in selecting career.

Tech Stack - MERN

Architecture

