Project Name: Virtual Classroom for medical students

Domain : Web Application & Deep learning

Project Description:

This Web application provides video lectures to teach complex subjects and medical procedures with a real time chat facility.

Technical Description :

1. The medical students/professors needs to register in this application and can access virtual classroom with real time chat and medical procedure videos.

2. Frontend is designed by React js.

3. Students , professors, classroom information are stored in the mongo dB dataset.

4. The web application is deployed in AWS (Amazon Web Services).